SELECTION CRITERIA FOR INDIVIDUALS

For each criteria, please provide a short description of how the nominee meets or exceeds the characteristics sought – above and beyond job related responsibilities. Not all of the criteria may be applicable. Specific evidence is preferred over general evidence. Nominees must qualify in one or more of the following criteria:

Criteria #1: Sustained effort to promote equal opportunity for all and embrace the image of Dr. King. How has the candidate met this criterion?

Criteria # 2: Excellence in a field of endeavor, thereby serving as a role model for the disadvantaged or under-represented ethnic groups. How has the candidate met this criterion?

Criteria #3: Demonstrate strong and growing commitment to service. How has the candidate met this criterion?

Criteria #4: Assist in ensuring equal opportunity and career advancement options for underrepresented ethnic groups. What has the nominee accomplished that has helped to promote inclusiveness?

For award consideration, completed nomination forms must be received by Wednesday, December 1, 2010.
