

News release

October 9, 2009

Contact: Lee Colony 262.564.2512

262.359.0798 (cell)

Seminars to provide accurate, useful information for consumers

Gateway Technical College is partnering with local groups to host a series of workshops aimed at providing consumers with useful and accurate information on creating a budget, getting a mortgage, banking and insurance, automotive financing and credit.

The Hispanic Business Alliance and the League of United Latin American Citizens Council (LULAC) 328 is collaborating with Gateway to provide the free GMAC SmartEdge sessions designed to take the mystery out of issues facing consumers today. All materials will be donated by LULAC and GMAC.

Sessions will be held 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. They include:

- Credit and Budget will cover the main topics of applying for and maintaining good credit, including the essentials of good budgeting. It will be held Oct. 14 at the Horizon Center for Transportation Technology, 4940 88th Ave., Kenosha.
- Automotive Financing will include the different payment options available when buying or leasing a new vehicle, as well as related topics.

It will be held Oct. 21 at the Horizon Center for Transportation Technology, 4940 88th Ave., Kenosha.

- Mortgage will include the details of the home-buying process and financing a new home. It will be held Oct. 28 at the Center for Bioscience and Information Technology, 3520 30th Ave., Kenosha.
- Banking and Insurance will cover the many options consumers face in these two areas. It will be held Nov. 4 at the Center for Bioscience and Information Technology, 3520 30th Ave., Kenosha.

For more information or to RSVP, please contact (262) 752-8882 or info@hispanibiz.net.

Gateway Technical College collaborates with communities in Kenosha, Racine and Walworth counties to ensure economic growth and viability by providing education, training, leadership and technological resources to meet the changing needs of students, employers and communities.

XXX