Gateway offering English Language Learners courses
Signup has already begun

Do you know someone who wants to improve their English skills? A non-English speaker who wants to learn English?

Gateway Technical College will offer English Language Learners (ELL) courses beginning Sept. 8 at Gateway facilities as well as community-based locations throughout the three-county Gateway District. Courses are free for those who are Wisconsin residents. Out-of-state students pay $53 per credit hour.

All participants will need to pay for a book expected to be less than $40. The book will cover a year's worth of studies. Whether you know a little English or speak no English at all, courses are designed to meet the needs of all levels of proficiency.

Classes will be held at the Elkhorn, Kenosha and Racine campuses as well as the Burlington Center, in addition to the non-Gateway facilities sites. Signup for classes has already begun. For more information:

- Kenosha, (262) 564-2200
- Racine, (262) 619-6200
- Elkhorn, (262) 741-8200

- Burlington, (262) 767-5200

Gateway Technical College collaborates with communities in Kenosha, Racine and Walworth counties to ensure economic growth and viability by providing education, training, leadership and technological resources to meet the changing needs of students, employers and communities.
