

★ ★ ★ WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH ★ ★ ★

Celebrating Women of Character, Courage, and Commitment

Ground Level

Journalist and Author Michele McPhee

Michele is an author, talk radio host, and journalist who has written for The Boston Globe and others. She was on the ground for the fall of the Twin Towers, near the finish line of the Boston Marathon bombing, and in Jonesboro, Arkansas covering the school shootings. Michele will take you through these stories and many more discussing what they have meant to our country and the global community.

Wednesday, March 19 • 10:00 a.m.

Racine Campus
Racine Building—Great Lakes Room

and

Elkhorn Campus—South Building Room 112
(via LifeSize)

and

Kenosha Campus
Academic Building—Room A217 (via LifeSize)

Wednesday, March 19 • 2:00 p.m.

Elkhorn Campus
South Building—Room 112

and

Racine Campus
Racine Building—Great Lakes Room (via LifeSize)

and

Kenosha Campus
Academic Building—Room A217 (via LifeSize)

Girl Rising

Enjoy breakfast and a showing of Girl Rising, a documentary that journeys around the world documenting the lives of nine unforgettable girls, witnessing the strength of the human spirit and the power of education to change the world.

Friday, March 21 • 10:00 a.m.

Racine Campus
Lake Building—Multicultural Resource Center

Friday, March 21 • 10:00 a.m.

Elkhorn Campus
South Building—Room 112

The History of Hats and Headdresses Around the World

Join in a discussion about the cultural significance and impact of women's hats, headdresses and wraps. Refreshments will be served and attendees are encouraged to wear a unique hat, headdress or wrap.

Tuesday, March 18 • 10:00 a.m.

Kenosha Campus
Student Commons

Ain't I a Woman

Enjoy a musical and theatrical celebration of four renowned African American women: Zora Neale Hurston, Clementine Hunter, Sojourner Truth and Fannie Lou Hamer.

Monday, March 31 • 12:00 p.m.

Kenosha Campus
Conference Center—Madrigano Auditorium

Sponsored by Gateway's Student Life Department and the Multicultural Program. Questions? Contact Vanessa Perez at perezvm@gtc.edu or Tammi Summers at summerst@gtc.edu. Interpreter available upon request. Contact Lisa Sadowski at sadowskil@gtc.edu.

an equal opportunity/employer and educator • ofrece igualdad en oportunidades/empleo y educación