

News release

March 7, 2019

Media contact: Lee Colony 262.564.2512

262.359.0798 (cell)

Angela Haney named Gateway District Star Ambassador

Angela Haney was named Gateway Technical College's newest District Star Ambassador and will now be the student voice of the college to communities in Kenosha County, Racine County and Walworth County as well as at speaking engagements during public events held by the college each year.

Haney (Kenosha) was initially selected as Kenosha Campus Star Ambassador. Other Star Ambassadors selected include Josua Ataansuyi (Milwaukee) for the Racine Campus and Joseph Wilber (Whitewater) for Burlington Center and Elkhorn Campus. District Ambassadors are chosen from the field of three Star Ambassadors.

Haney, a Human Services program student, will represent Gateway at a statewide leadership conference of District Ambassadors from each college of the Wisconsin Technical College System, serve as the keynote speaker at Gateway's Adult High School completion ceremony and will also receive a Gateway Technical College Foundation Inc. tuition voucher.

Ataansuyi is enrolled in the college's Information Technology-Software Developer program and Wilber is enrolled in the Business Management program. As Star Ambassadors, Ataansuyi and Wilber also will receive Foundation tuition vouchers and serve as the student voice to communities and the college from their respective campuses.

Nominees are selected based on their outstanding character, positive attitude, leadership, personal goals, communication skills, enthusiasm and self-confidence. There was a total field of 14 students endorsed by instructors or staff this year.

Gateway Technical College collaborates with communities in Kenosha, Racine and Walworth counties to ensure economic growth and viability by providing education, training, leadership and technological resources to meet the changing needs of students, employers and communities.

XXX