Gateway to hold birding seminar

Well-known area birding expert and Hoy Audubon Society member Rick Fare will deliver a presentation on the birds of Wisconsin and birding techniques, 4:30 p.m. to 6 p.m. July 29, with another session on August 27, at Gateway Technical College's Center for Sustainable Living on its Kenosha Campus, 3520-30th Ave.

Fare will provide information on binocular basics, bird identification techniques and understanding bird behavior.

The presentation is free, but those attending are asked to RSVP center program manager Kallie Chittenden at chittendenk@gtc.edu or (262) 564-2196.

Gateway Technical College collaborates with communities in Kenosha, Racine and Walworth counties to ensure economic growth and viability by providing education, training, leadership and technological resources to meet the changing needs of students, employers and communities.
