Gateway workshop's buzz
will be on bees

Gateway Technical College will host The Buzz on Bees, a workshop focused on beekeeping and the importance of honeybees in pollination, 4 p.m. Aug. 17 at its Center for Sustainable Living on its Kenosha Campus, 3520-30th Ave.

Beekeeping expert Stephanie Slater will talk about honeybees, beekeeping and how everyone can help support the honeybee population in our everyday lives. The event is free and open to the public.

Please RSVP to center manager Kallie Johnson at johnsonka@gtc.edu or (262) 564-2196.

Gateway Technical College's mission is to deliver industry-focused education that is flexible, accessible and affordable for our diverse community. The college collaborates with communities in Kenosha, Racine and Walworth counties to ensure economic growth and viability by providing education, training, leadership and technological resources to meet the changing needs of students, employers and communities.
