Katina Fuller-Scott keynotes
Gateway's 26th annual Dr. King celebration

Katina Fuller-Scott, senior director of strategy, measurement and analysis for the Boys & Girls Club of Greater Milwaukee, will be the keynote speaker at Gateway Technical College's 26th annual Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration, noon, Jan. 20, in the Madrigrano Auditorium of the Conference Center on its Kenosha Campus, 3520-30th Ave.

This year's theme is "Hindsight is 20/20: Envision the Future." Doors open at 11:30 a.m. The program will run until 1 p.m.

Gateway will also honor this year's Dr. King Humanitarian award winners, Deontrae Mayfield as well as the Kiwanis Club of West Racine.

The event this year will highlight the importance of family. In addition to the Humanitarian awards, Gateway will also honor Dream Keepers – the winners of the Peace Mentor, Kenosha Kindness Week and Peace Maker awards – at the event.

Gateway Technical College collaborates with communities in Kenosha, Racine and Walworth counties to ensure economic growth and viability by providing education, training, leadership and technological resources to meet the changing needs of students, employers and communities.
