'One Voice, Many Stories' theme of Gateway's 25th Dr. King celebration

Gateway Technical College will hold its 25th annual Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Jan. 21 in the Madrigrano Auditorium of the Conference Center on the college's Kenosha Campus, 3520-30th Ave.

Doors open at 11:30 a.m. and the program begins at noon.

This year's theme is "One Voice, Many Stories." Dr. King used his voice to share the stories of many people and help inspire change. At this year's event, attendee's will hear from presenter Kirstin Anglea about "The Power of Your Story" and from keynote speaker and Dr. King re-enactor Gregg Riley.

Gateway will honor the Dr. Martin Luther King Humanitarians at the event, as well as the youth Dream Keepers Awards recipients.

Gateway Technical College collaborates with communities in Kenosha, Racine and Walworth counties to ensure economic growth and viability by providing education, training, leadership and technological resources to meet the changing needs of students, employers and communities.
