Gateway seeking nominations for Dr. King Humanitarian Award

Gateway Technical College is taking nominations for its 2023 Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Humanitarian Award, an annual college effort to honor those individuals and groups who work to support the community and exemplify Dr. King's values.

The deadline for submitting nominations is Dec. 9. The form can be found at: gtc.edu/humanitarian-award.

Honorees will be recognized for exemplifying the principles of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and serving the causes of equality, justice, freedom and peace at Gateway Technical College's 29th Annual Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration program noon January 16, 2023.

Individuals may nominate a living resident or organization of Kenosha County, Racine County or Walworth County who instills pride within the community and inspires others.

The award may go to students, adults and organizations distinguished for humanitarian contributions to society in their school, business or profession, as well as dedication to volunteerism or philanthropic life's work. The 2022 honorees were Corey Prince and Open Wings Learning Community.

For more information, contact Marshlli Hamilton at hamiltonm@gtc.edu, or Sarah Marbes at marbess@gtc.edu.

Gateway Technical College's mission is to deliver industry-focused education that is flexible, accessible and affordable for our diverse community. The college collaborates with communities in Kenosha, Racine and Walworth counties to ensure economic growth and viability by providing education, training, leadership and technological resources to meet the changing needs of students, employers and communities.
