Gateway to host 11th annual holiday gifting art and craft show

More than 130 vendors will feature art, craft and specialty products ideal for holiday shoppers at the 11th Annual Holiday Gifting Art and Craft show fundraiser 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 1, at Gateway's Kenosha Campus, 3520-30th Ave.

The event is free and open to the public.

The show features holiday decor, photography, paintings, jewelry, pottery, felted wool items, crafts, children's clothing, doll clothing, tasty treats and home and yard art.

Event-goers can also visit Santa Claus and enjoy food truck selections at Santa's Diner and Rest Stop. Raffles of vendor-donated items will also be held.

The fair will fill the majority of the main academic complex including the Technical, Science, Service and Academic Building corridors. These buildings are located on the southeastern end of the campus on 30th Avenue.

The event is sponsored as a fund-raiser by the Gateway Association for Career and Technical Education. This professional organization donates the majority of its booth sales to benefit Gateway students with student emergency funding and by sponsoring a scholarship.

Gateway Technical College collaborates with communities in Kenosha, Racine and Walworth counties to ensure economic growth and viability by providing education, training, leadership and technological resources to meet the changing needs of students, employers and communities.
