Gateway announces it's taking nominations for Dr. King Humanitarian Award

Gateway Technical College has announced it is taking nominations for its 2019 Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Humanitarian Award. The deadline for submitting nominations is November 30.

Honorees will be recognized at Gateway Technical College's 25th Annual Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration program at noon January 21, 2019.

Honorees will receive an award at the annual event for exemplifying the principles of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and serving the causes of equality, justice, freedom and peace.

Individuals may nominate a living resident of Kenosha County, Racine County or Walworth County who instills pride within the community and inspires others.

The award will go to students and adults distinguished for humanitarian contributions to society in his or her school, business or profession, as well as dedication to volunteerism or philanthropic life's work.

The form can be found at Gateway's Web site: gtc.edu/mlk

For more information, contact Jacqueline Morris, (262) 564-3032.

Gateway Technical College collaborates with communities in Kenosha, Racine and Walworth counties to ensure economic growth and viability by providing education, training, leadership and technological resources to meet the changing needs of students, employers and communities.
