International students must verify that they have sufficient funds available to support their education. The forms of documentation required depend upon who is supporting the student. All documents must be in English. If admitted to Gateway Technical College, students may also be required to present copies of these documents to the U.S. Consul when applying for a student visa. See the Cost of Study sheet.

Who will support you?  Contribution to Support (in US Dollars) | Required documentation:

( ) Self  $________________ | Certified bank statement or Certification of Finances completed and mailed directly from the student’s bank.
