Green and Healthy: The Future of Cities

featuring guest speaker
Jim Schwab

Friday,
March 18, 2016

7:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.

Doors Open at 6:30 p.m.
(Late seating until 7:15 p.m.)

Jim Schwab, of the American Planning Association in Chicago, is an author and speaker on urban planning. Jim will give examples of how we can enjoy and develop green spaces that enhance the health and well-being of our community.

Jim will be joined by a panel of local professionals who will share information about current excellent “green practices” already in place in the greater Racine area.

Panel of Local Professionals will speak on:

- Julie Kinzleman - “Healthy Beaches and Clean Water”
- Nan Calvert - “Educational Nature Centers”
- Matt Koepnick - “Urban Forestry and City Parks”
- Reverend Bill Thompkins - “Neighborhood Beautification”

There will be time for Q&A with Jim Schwab and the panel after the presentations.

Continue your learnings and be a friend of the environment at EcoFest Racine.

Interactive displays and lots of children’s activities, presentations on eco-friendly homes, butterfly garden workshop, cooking demonstrations and more. Free admission. Saturday, March 19, 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. in the Lake Building on the Racine Campus of Gateway Technical College, 1001 Main Street. For further information, go to www.gtc.edu/ecofest
